Dear Dr. Yanmei Chen,

It is my great pleasure to invite you to participate in the 17th Annual World Congress. Your presence will contribute to the scientific exchange among international colleagues in proteomics who attend the conference. Further, we are very pleased that you will present your research on Quantitative Phosphoproteomics Reveals in vivo Boron Deficiency Induced Signaling Dynamics in Arabidopsis Roots.

The 17th Annual World Congress will be in Orlando, FL, September 30 – October 3, 2018. Pre-Congress activities include the Education Programs and Clinical Day on Sunday (September 30). The congress program will feature three days of talks, posters, and exhibits. Approximately 1,200 scientists are expected to attend and approximately 800 research papers will be presented as talks and posters. Details are posted to the HUPO 2018 website: www.hupo2018.org.

We regret we are unable to offer financial assistance for your participation in the conference.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require additional information.

Sincerely yours,

Jennifer A. Watson
